FAQ'S

HOW SOON SHOULD I BOOK?

As soon as you know your wedding date, my diary gets very busy for popular dates throughout the year. Most brides enquire for my availability 1 year - 18 months in advance.

FAQ'S

01

CAN I BOOK IN A TRIAL BEFORE PAYING THE BOOKING FEE'S?

Unfortunately not, as another bride may want to book for the same date. If I receive an enquiry for the same date and you haven't paid the booking fee, then the date will be given away.

02

WHEN SHOULD A TRIAL BE BOOKED FOR?

I recommend 3-4 months before the wedding day. Around this time, you should have your dress decided and a better vision of the day.

03

WHEN CAN YOU DO TRIALS?

Trials are by appointment only Monday - Friday daytimes. Saturday appointments are subject to availability and will incur in an additional fee.

FAQ'S

Q4

WHAT HAPPENS AT THE TRIAL?

The trial is the perfect time for me to get to know you! Your likes/dislikes and of course your planned day. I will work closely with you and your ideas and take photos of my work during the trial.

Q5

HOW LONG WILL MY TRIAL TAKE?

For your trial, please allow the following times:

1. Hair and makeup - up to 3 hours
  2. Makeup only - 90 minutes
  3. Hair only - 2 hours
- This gives us enough time to try a few different styles, as well as going over any other details for your day.

WHERE DO TRIALS TAKE PLACE?

Trials take place at a professional luxury studio based in Burwell, just outside of Newmarket during the week. Trials can be arranged to take place at your home depending on location and will be subject to return travel charges. Contact me for further information.

WHEN SHOULD I WASH MY HAIR BEFORE THE TRIAL?

Please come to your trial with clean washed hair. It is ideal to have freshly washed and dried hair as this gives the best results! This can be done either on the morning of your trial or the night before. Advice on hair care can be given at your trial when I have fully assessed your hair type.
